

contents

issue 39

5 NEWS UPDATE

17 HOTEL COMPETITION

'Emergency Services Ireland' is offering one lucky reader the chance to win a relaxing break for two people at the Old Ground Hotel, Ennis.

19 CIVIL DEFENCE COLLEGE

The Civil Defence College is currently in the process of rolling out a new training database to keep a record of all exercises for active volunteers.

20 JUSTICE AND DEFENCE

The Government's decision to hold one minister responsible for the Department of Justice and Equality and the Department of Defence presents new challenges, not least for national security, writes Prof. Michael Mulqueen.

27 TETRA IRELAND

With the Gardaí and most of the frontline emergency services now signed up to Tetra while others are in the process of doing so, Tetra Ireland's CEO Pat Kelly hopes the fire service will finally join the network early next year.

32 TRAINING AND EDUCATION

There is great potential for the development of pre-hospital patient care in Ireland, according to Brian Carlin, director of the MSc EMS course at UCD.

45 EMERGENCY RESPONSE

Smartphone technology is having an impact on the way emergency rescue is being carried out on a number of levels, and is becoming a popular choice for a number of agencies.

52 NAVAL SERVICE

Captain Mark Mellett, recently appointed Commodore of the Naval Service, believes that collaboration between the university sector and the navy is vital to drive the maritime economy in Ireland.

59 RESUS 2011 DEBATE

The final verdict that Ireland needs its own resuscitation council was unanimous amongst doctors, paramedics and other emergency services personnel, following a lengthy debate at RESUS 2011 in Limerick.

67 IRISH RED CROSS

Donal Forde, who recently took over the helm at Irish Red Cross as the secretary general, discusses the challenges that face the charity sector and, in particular, the organisation following turbulent times.

75 MULTI-AGENCY EXERCISE

Dublin Fire Brigade led a major flood evacuation training exercise in Swords recently to simulate the rescue of a group of people stranded after a serious flash flooding incident.

81 GP REFERRAL SCHEME

The HSE's new GP Exercise Referral Programme national co-ordinator Gemma Strachan explains what it means for patients, fitness instructors and general practitioners alike.

87 PRISON SERVICE

Ireland is the only country in the EU that does not have 'spent convictions' legislation. A forthcoming Bill addressing this matter has the potential to be a landmark development in Irish law but uncertainty persists over several key issues.

91 KILDARE FIRE SERVICE

Celina Barrett has quickly moved up the ladder since joining the fire service in 1994. Now stationed in Newbridge, the new chief fire officer with Kildare Fire & Rescue Service discusses her main priorities. She also outlines the growing importance of emergency management training under the national emergency management framework document.

97 FOREST FIRES

The recent gorse and forest fires that ravaged a number of counties have highlighted the growing need for local authorities and other agencies to do more in raising public awareness of the impact these fires have on local communities.

103 DIGITAL MAPPING

With over 180,000 hits and up to 145,000 codes generated on the new all-Ireland digital address code system, a number of emergency services have also joined ranks with Loc8 Code to precisely pinpoint accident or incident locations north and south.

107 ARMY FITNESS TRAINING

The Defence Forces put their weight behind an intensive fitness training regime to help the leaders on this year's RTE 'Operation Transformation' programme. However, you don't have to be in the army to benefit from pursuing a healthy lifestyle.

EDITOR

Grace Heneghan

PUBLISHER

Patrick Aylward

GRAPHIC DESIGNER

Catherine Doyle

ADMINISTRATION

Anne-Marie Moran

CIRCULATION

Lynda Garry

Emergency Services Ireland

14 Upper Fitzwilliam Street

Dublin 2

T: 01-6785165

F: 01-67851910

E: emergencyservices@oceanpublishing.ie

W: www.oceanpublishing.ie

Whilst every effort has been made to ensure that the information included in correct, the publisher cannot accept responsibility for errors, omissions or discrepancies. The views expressed are no necessarily those of the publisher.

All Rights Reserved

Emergency Services Ireland © 2011

113 PARAMEDIC ASSAULTS

Ongoing dangers facing frontline emergency workers were highlighted following the two-year sentence of a man for attacking a paramedic during the course of his duty.

117 CROSS-BORDER TRAINING

Firefighters north and south are now training side by side for the first time, under a new three-year road safety initiative that spans the border regions.

121 VIEWPOINT

The fire service is best positioned to deliver rapid on-scene medical intervention, according to John Kidd, spokesman for the Irish Fire and Emergency Services Association.

128 FIRE RISK ASSESSMENT

A collaborative transnational project to develop and share good practice in fire risk assessment and management has culminated in 26 recommendations for fire and rescue services in Europe.

137 TRAUMA CARE

A national registry for pre-hospital trauma care should be established with input from the ambulance service and emergency departments, according to Dr Seamus Clarke.

143 ISIA PRESIDENT

John Lawlor, managing director of Synergy Security Solutions, outlines his plans during his presidency of the Irish Security Industry Association.

149 SECURITY EXHIBITION

ISEC 2011, opened by Garda Commissioner Martin Callinan, showcased a greater range of new technologies this year, as evidenced by the display of the latest hardware and software.

151 SECURITY INDUSTRY ASSOCIATION

The Irish Security Industry Association is investing in marketing and communications to ensure the message gets out to the security industry's customer base and the unaligned security companies.

155 SUICIDE INTERVENTION

The demand for services offered by Ireland's only centre for the prevention of suicide or self-harm is on the increase, writes Joan Freeman, CEO of Pieta House.

160 UK NEWS

169 INTERNATIONAL NEWS